

GOTHAM

What We Ate This November

November 30, 2015 | Food & Drink

From a burger with au poivre dipping sauce to a truly on-point pork belly, here's what the Gotham team ate this month....

Pork Belly at Bespoke Kitchen (615 1/2 Hudson St.). "Pork belly can be found on nearly every restaurant menu these days, but chef Franco Barrio's version stands out: crispy on the edges and perfectly tender inside. And if that's not enough pig for you, there's the bacon tasting option during brunch with smoked maple bacon and lamb bacon." —Bao Ong, Online Contributor
